9:30 AM - 4:30 PM
Unity Church of Practical Christianity
Cordova, TN
(Suburb of Memphis Metro Area)

Edgar Cayce is considered the “father of holistic health” in the U.S.

so this program will begin with an overview of holistic medicine – exploring the basic concepts of wellness, as well as how this approach to health differs from conventional, Western veterinary medicine. Since the foundation for health is a wholesome diet we will further explore this aspect of pet care and take a look at pet vaccinations.

You will have the opportunity to learn about acupressure techniques, herbal medicine, chiropractic, massage and homeopathy in pet care. Finally, since holistic medicine treats the individual as a whole – body, mind, and spirit, we will end the day with an in-depth exploration of the spiritual aspect of animals from several points of view including what the Cayce readings have to say.

The program will conclude with an experiential exercise that will guide you to higher levels of connection with one of your four-legged family members.
