The Key: Unlocking Your Psychic Abilities for Everyday Living with Echo Bodine

A favorite presenter at A.R.E. Headquarters in Virginia Beach, she will help guide you to new levels of awareness and give you tools and exercises to prompt a new breakthrough experience. The Edgar Cayce readings tell us that we are intuitive by nature and that we can develop our psychic abilities to a high level. But it isn't enough just to become more psychic for its own sake - we need to put our abilities into practical use in our daily lives before these gifts take on real meaning.

In this full-day program, you will:

- Understand the difference between psychic abilities and intuition
- Learn problem-solving or healing to a current situation, and find your natural way to fully intergrate your spiritual gifts into your daily life
- Experience the process of reading an individual by using psychometry and other techniques for "tuning in"
- Tap in to your psi abilities by giving a reading on a photo for another person, providing insights
- Learn to use psychic protection and clearing to protect yourself from becoming a "psychic sponge"
- Discover ways to avoid burnout, stay grounded, and respect ethics and boundaries by fully developing your gifts, you can improve the way you live your life. With warmth, humor, and down-to-earth guidance, Echo will help make your journey to psychic awareness fun, inspiring, meaningful, and applicable to your daily life. This course's activities will enable you to interpret what you see and coach you to better define, understand, and practice your own unique gifts.

For this experiential training, you must bring two photos of someone close to you (one could be of yourself) each in an envelope so that the picture is not visible AND one piece of jewelry of someone close to you or your own jewelry.

Don't miss this special opportunity to train with
